

This week we dive into John 5-21!

Hey reading community,

This week you will read through the Gospel according to John, the “beloved” disciple. Like the other Gospel authors, John wrote this account so we might understand that Jesus was the Messiah the people had been waiting for. He knew that we all might have a radically new life by believing in Jesus.

Even though we're moving through these books quickly, we hope you take time to appreciate the profoundness of what these authors are trying to show us. Mark L. Strauss is a scholar and professor at Bethel Seminary San Diego and author of Four Portraits, One Jesus. We invited him to help us reflect on the Gospel of Luke by offering another guest essay. We hope it helps you see the story of Jesus through John's unique angle.
